'Challenge Mountain' Interested In Truettner Lodge

By Irene Pettyjohn

Challenge Mountain of Walloon Hills, Inc. is interested in leasing the former Truettner Lodge and approximately five acres of property on the south branch of the AuSable River for use as an outdoor recreation facility by handicapped individuals. Challenge Mountain representative James A.

White, of Boyne City, asked Crawford County Commissioners at their June 19 meeting to support his group's proposed acquisition.

"We have found that personal participation on the part of handicapped individuals in challenging outdoor sports activities encourages a strong sense of self worth in those individuals who otherwise might feel left out of society," wrote Michael Hurchick III, president of Challenge Mountain's board of directors in their proposal to the DNR. "We are dedicated to helping handicapped individuals participate in as many outdoor activities as Michigan has to offer."

White explained to commissioners that Challenge Mountain, a non-profit organization with federal tax exempt status, owns and operates a Walloon Hills ski facility for handicapped individuals of all ages. The resort is funded through private donations from individuals and organizations. They also operate a resale shop in Boyne City, staffed by volunteers, that helps fund the resort.

Having successfully handled their winter ski program, White said Challenge Mountain's board of directors have been looking for a suitable year round facility which would enable them to expand their program to include year round activities. The Truettner facility would offer opportunities for canoeing, fishing, hiking, snowmobiling, snowshoeing, and cross country skiing.

The group presented a proposal for a lease agreement to DNR deputy director John MacGregor, Region II Headquarters, Roscommon, on May 21. They are still waiting for the DNR to respond.

The agreement detailed the renovation work Challenge Mountain would do to bring the lodge up to code and provide barrier free access to all buildings. They also agreed to provide a year-round caretaker to protect the property from vandalism when not in use.

To help pay for their expenses,

Challenge Mountain intends to sublease the lodge for intermittent periods during the year to a non-profit Challenge Mountain Booster Association. Memberships to this association will be sold and these members will have the right to use the lodge when it is not being used by Challenge Mountain.

White told commissioners that Challenge Mountain is very anxious to come to an agreement with the DNR. He said MacGregor has indicated that the caretaker will be leaving the property on June 30, leaving the buildings unoccupied and vulnerable to vandalism.

"Our proposal would save the state of Michigan the cost of tearing down the buildings and clearing the property," said White. "Instead of destroying the buildings, it would put them to a very worthwhile use."

Commissioner Dennis Long supported preserving the Truettner estate. He said he had looked into the Challenge Mountain organization and was impressed with their operation.

"Sometimes I think the DNR would like to tear down all the buildings in Crawford County, including my house and make it look like a large field," he said. Long suggested the county ask the DNR to continue to provide a caretaker on the Truettner property until a decision regarding how the property is to be used is made. He further suggested that copies of the request be sent to Rep. Ralph Ostling, Sen. John Pridnia, and new DNR director Delbert Rector.

"The DNR has gone on record to preserve the Rayburn and Truettner sites until decisions are made regarding their future use," said Commissioner Chairman Bob McLachlan. "That should mean to preserve them as any homeowner would, even if that means paying for an on-site caretaker."

McLachlan said he also supports preserving the buildings at the Rayburn and Truettner estates.

In response to a request by Senator John Pridnia that the county waive its fee for the use of a meeting room at the courthouse for an MESC meeting on July 18 from noon to 2 p.m., Long suggested the commission grant Pridnia's request, contingent on the DNR's approving the County Board of Commissioners' use of a meeting room at the Rayburn property for their July 17th meeting. At the commission's June 5th meeting, Long asked that one of the commission's July meetings be held at the Rayburn estate to allow residents of Crawford County an opportunity to see the buildings before the state decides to tear them down.

Army Parachute Riggers Need To Be Perfectionists

By Sgt. Tom Springer

126th Public Affairs Detachment

Army parachute riggers may be perfectionists, but that doesn't stop them from having a sense of humor.

"We tell them if their parachute doesn't work to bring it back," said Sgt. Dean Burchill, a rigger with Company F (Long Range Surveillance) 425th Infantry, Michigan Army National Guard.

Army riggers pack the parachutes used to drop paratroopers and heavy equipment. Yet despite their good humor, when it comes to their jobs, they're very serious.

"Our training is always real," said Company F's Sgt. Don Johnson, who packed chutes for the 101st Airborne in Vietnam. "Every time a paratrooper jumps from one of our chutes, his life is in our hands. There's no way for us to practice."

During "Operation Eagle Crest '91," this year's Michigan Army Guard training exercise, Company F's riggers are set up in a hangar at Camp Grayling Army Air Field.

On an average drill weekend, Company F's 10-man rigger section packs 60-80 chutes. But during annual training, Company F's 100-plus paratroopers have made three jumps. To keep up, the riggers have often put in 15-hour work days.

The riggers begin by laying out the unpacked chutes on special 5-foot long tables. To a layman, the balled up chutes resemble a green pile of dirty laundry. But to a rigger, even an unpacked chute is a study in aerodynamics.

"Most people think a parachute opens from the bottom up, but that's a misconception," explained Burchill, smoothing wrinkles from a green nylon canopy. "Air flows up into a parachute and can't escape, so the top opens first. That's why when a round chute starts to inflate it looks like a light bulb."

After being laid out lengthwise, the parachute's canopy is neatly folded in sections, like the vanes of a collapsed umbrella. The chute is then packed, accordion fashion, into a canvas deployment bag that rides on the paratrooper's back.

"We don't have packing quotas," said Burchill. "But we can pack a chute in about 30 minutes." (The Army training standard is one hour.) Company F riggers pack quickly, but for safety's sake, a second rigger observes the process.

To become a rigger, a soldier must attend a 12-week school, be on jump status and jump regularly. When it comes to rigger quality control, it's hard to beat the Army's system. On a regular basis, each rigger must jump a chute that he or she has packed.

Even when Company F soldiers aren't jumping, the riggers keep busy. Army regulations require chutes to be repacked every 120 days. Otherwise, chutes could collect moisture that could cause mildew and rot, or develop creases that could weaken their fabric.

Not that safety has been a problem for Company F's riggers. Burchill said their record stands at more than 30,000 chutes packed without a malfunction. That compares favorably to the Army average of approximately 2-3 malfunctions per 10,000.

According to Company F rigger Johnson, that kind of record builds trust.

"Airborne troops don't like to trust anyone but their own riggers," said Johnson. "A few years ago, we got in a load of chutes packed in West Virginia, and the guys were really leery of using them."

He's never seen a Company F chute fail to open, but he has seen some big

Indiana Man And Burro Walk For Someone's Tomorrow

Rusty Reed is glad to talk with you, but you must walk along with him or—in a moment—he'll be gone. Reed is a man with a purpose.

He and his burro Harry are walking 400 miles from Churubusco, Indiana, to Michigan's Mackinac Bridge—a 16 to 18-day adventure, depending upon their daily mileage.

"I've been stopped by 50 people today," says Reed. "If I stopped every time I wouldn't make it. Harry's about worthless after a couple stops. He likes to keep going."

Reed and Harry cover about 25 miles a day. On Thursday, June 20, they went from a home north of Houghton Lake to the Bill and Doris Burrick residence on Old 27 North in Frederic Township.

"I'd say we were really chuckin' along today. I can just tell when we're moving good and when we're not—when we're being stopped too much."

Reed, a 28-year-old welder from Churubusco (near Fort Wayne), took a three-week vacation to mount his trek.

He started planning the walking trip last fall. He bought a pack harness and trained Harry for the trip by packing the donkey with 200 pounds and walking him about 200 miles a week around the area.

Reed planned his route on maps before beginning, but made some changes once they were on the road.

"I was going to take county roads, but they're not straight enough. I figured Old 27—a former thoroughfare—would be a good, wide road with a wide berm and gravel. Asphalt is harder on Harry's shoes and on me."

In fact, Reed has had to have Harry reshod three times.

"His shoes wear off; the nails break off. It's a scary thing when one (shoe) comes loose," says Reed, "because you're not gonna run into a store and buy a new one."

The trip hasn't been easy on either of them. At the half-way point, in fact, Reed almost quit.

"I was depressed. I think I was homesick. Harry was moving real slow in the morning. He looked bad at end of the first two days—his head hanging, not eating enthusiastically. I thought I'd have to send him home and take a pack. It rained two nights in a row. He doesn't like to walk in the rain. I can keep coaxing him, but he doesn't like to move."

But when Reed stopped at a phone to call his wife Sue in the hope that she would advise him to come home, nobody answered. Soon afterward, he found an anti-inflammatory medication for Harry, and both man and burro got their second winds.

"It would have killed me to quit," admits Reed, who takes two aspirins a day to keep his own pain down. "Harry was just getting in shape. I'm glad nobody answered the phone. I'm not (homesick) now. I could stay gone another month."

Harry, too, seems fit for the duration of the walk. In contrast to his first two days, when Reed says he looked LANDING ACCIDENT—Owner and pilot, James D. Albers, of Livonia, his wife, and daughter escaped injury last Friday, when their Cessna 180 crash landed at the Grayling McNamara Airport.

Family Escapes Injury During Landing Accident

Three members of the James D. Albers family of Livonia escaped injury when their Cessna 180 crash landed at the Grayling McNamara and Camp Grayling Army Airfield on Friday, June 21.

The accident occurred at about 4:05 p.m. According to witnesses, the plane went into a ground loop (a horizontal spin with the tail spinning around the nose of the aircraft) as Albers was attempting his landing. No other aircraft or ground vehicles were involved and there were no fires when the crash rescue team arrived, just moments after the crash occurred. The airplane was owned and piloted by James Albers. Damage to the airplane included the right landing gear, the right wing, and the propeller. Airport manager Dennis Palmer said Federal Aviation Administration (F.A.A.) investigators were expected to begin investigating the crash scene on Monday, June 24.

The crash site was cordoned off and guarded by members of the Cincinnati, Ohio, based 377th Military Police Company, an Army Reserve unit training with the Michigan Army National Guard.

Albers, his wife, and young child were flying into Grayling to visit his father who lives in Lovells.

Camp AuSable Begins Summer Camping Season

Camp AuSable began its summer camping season on Sunday, June 9. Camp director Bill Edsell welcomed 77 staff members.

During the first week preparations were made for the arrival of the campers. This included craft projects, nature classes, horsemanship, 4-wheelers, swimming, sailing, and pontoon boat riding.

On June 16, the 10 and 11 year old campers came. There was a full house of 213. They occupied all the cabins and two tents. During the week the campers were in two classes of their choice.

This week is for handicapped people.

Blood Drive To Be Held

The Crawford County Chapter of the American Red Cross will hold a blood drive on Wednesday, July 3, from 12 noon to 5:45 p.m., at the American Legion in Grayling.

The blood donated will help supply the hospitals in the northern area with blood during the busy 4th of July week and weekend.

There is a blood shortage and the holiday, with additional accidents, increases the need for blood. Crawford County must meet its assigned quota to help fulfill those needs. To become a blood donor, you must be 17 years of age or older, weigh at least 110 pounds, and be in good health.

Let's Talk About It

By Joe Murphy

The other day while I was relaxing on my front porch, I saw a young boy on a bicycle stop in front of the vacant house nearby and begin throwing stones at its windows. I walked over to tell the boy to stop and he assured me it was all right because no one was living there. When I explained that though no one lived there, it belonged to someone, who, if he broke the windows, would have to replace them. I said if he broke any windows I would have to inform the police and his Daddy would have to pay to replace those windows. I asked if they had to be away for awhile if he thought other kids should break the windows at his house. The boy was a very nice young man who seemed to have never been taught anything about respect for other's property. He acted as though the thought of respecting other people's rights was a new concept to him. He seemed to take my words to heart and agreed that he would not want anyone breaking their windows. He assured me that he was glad he had not broken any windows. He said he was sorry he had thrown any stones at the house. I really feel the young man did not even realize what he was doing was wrong until I told him. Where are the parents that should have been the ones who taught him about respect for the Person, Property, and Rights of others?

Are the children in today's society being short changed by not being taught the basic tenets of civilized living. Civilized living requires that each of us show due respect for the rights of others. Thank God, at least for part of my life I lived in a society where you could lay something down and when you returned, it would still be there. Everyone seemed to practice the Golden Rule and folks did not have to live behind locked doors. I think it is very true that unless you have respect for others you cannot respect yourself. Why do the young people of today who have had a relatively easy and pleasant life seem so intent on escaping from reality with drugs? Is it because the parents in their busy lives working to provide the good things for their children had no time to make their children feel good about themselves?

I have said many times that I am glad I was raised when and where I was. For though I had to work helping raise our food as a child, it gave me a good feeling to know I was a contributing member of the family. Do the children of today ever have a chance to contribute to the welfare of the family? If not they are being deprived of a wondrous feeling of pride and achievement. When the family sat down at the family table there seemed to always be food I had worked to raise, there for the family to enjoy.

DNR Has Responsibilities As Largest Landowner

Ineffective bureaucracies exist throughout the U.S.A. and here in Michigan our own Department of Natural Resources typifies and is an example of our concerns.

One can hardly pick up a magazine or newspaper without reading in depth reports on the importance of avoiding global warming, depleting the ozone, combating acid rain, or other data relative to our ecological well being, yet I am amazed to witness our own D.N.R. sit idly by as Dutch Elm Disease, Tent Caterpillars, Bud worms, Bark Beetles, and now Gypsy Moths destroy our forests.

By all means, Mr. Bureaucrat, sell your hunting and fishing licenses, sell your lumbering permits, maintain and use all those mineral rights you own, but please give us a little more than the pittance you pay "In Lieu of Taxes." Share with us some of the revenues you have amassed from us.

Don't wait for the insects to "run their cycle," and don't wait for the homeowner or private landowner to foot the bill. You, Mr. Bureaucrat, as Michigan's largest landowner have a responsibility and a debt you must face before the Green is Gone.

Notes From The Woods

By Nancy Lemmen

This is a story about friendship. It's about a man who sets off on an adventure with one friend in memory of three friends and how he makes many new friends along the way.

The man's name is Rusty Reed. He lives with his wife and young daughter on a ten-acre farm near Churubusco, Indiana.

Two years ago he bought a $50 donkey from another fellow in Indiana. The animal was a three-month-old wild burro when it was captured in Arizona six years ago and adopted out.

This June, the two of them — Rusty and his burro Harry — set off from the farm, located near Fort Wayne, to walk all the way to the Mackinac Bridge.

Reed is a bit of an adventurer. A few years ago, for example, he hitchhiked with only a backpack all the way to Key West.

"But this is the longest distance I've ever gone on foot," he says. The same is true for Harry.

On their trip to the bridge, Reed and his animal friend are walking with a purpose. They are accepting pledges along the way for the American Cancer Society.

It was Day 13 of their 16-day trip when Reed and Harry passed through Grayling on June 20, and at that point he had collected $3,000 in pledges for the society.

He says he had planned since last fall to make the walking trip, then decided to do it in honor of the cancer society because, "I buried three people (to cancer) in the last six months."

Reed started off with virtually no money in his pocket — not even for his own expenses — to discourage potential robbers. "If I get robbed, they're gonna kill me and get nothing," he says.

The donkey Harry carried Army rations for his owner and his own food, a high-protein horse mix. Within a few days, though, Reed dropped off the human food because it was too heavy for Harry.

KINDNESS OF STRANGERS

Since then, they have depended upon the kindness of strangers. And they have not been disappointed.

"Every place I knocked on was a friendly door," Reed says. "There's no way I'd have made this trip without the help of strangers. I haven't had any rejections."

With the exception of one night, when he stayed at a Biblical Research College in Rome City, Indiana, he and his burro have spent all their other nights on private property, usually in somebody's yard.

On Thursday evening, the folks at Headwaters Resort had hoped he would make it to their place north of Frederic and people at Trails Campground, south of Frederic, sent word he was welcome there, too.

But by around 8 o'clock, the two had already been invited to camp out in the front yard of Bill and Doris Burrick's home, a couple of miles north of the high school.

Throughout the trip it's been the same — always some friendly strangers to offer him a patch of ground to pitch his tent, a hot meal at the kitchen table, some grass and water for his donkey and bit of conversation before bedtime.

"It happens almost every day," Reed says. "It's real nice of people."

Because Reed is traveling with a donkey, he is excluded from state campgrounds.

The duo stopped at one in central Michigan where, "they kicked me out of the campground and gave me the ranger's yard." They also refunded Reed's payment, yet allowed him to use all of the campground facilities.

Approximately half way through his trip, he received needed encouragement from a Battle Creek woman who had ridden a horse across the country in the 1976 wagon train.

At that very moment, he was heading for a pay phone to call his wife to come get them. "I didn't tell anyone I was thinking of quitting. She (the horsewoman) just knew."

Another time, one fellow astride a mule rode out to greet them and chat for a while. "Then I saw him every day for three days," says Reed.

And others rode watch over Reed and Harry, too. "I had one person check on me six days until I was 100 miles north of them. I had neighbors I never really even talked with drive 150 miles to check on us."

KINSHIP DEEPENS

Reed's relationship with his donkey has changed over the course of the

"I know (Harry) inside and out now," Reed says. "The other day I almost drank after him. I filled a little pan up with water. He didn't want any, but I almost drank it."

"Me and him will be different. I'm gonna break him to ride. He's as strong as he'll ever be. And I'm as light as I'll ever be. Then he'll be ready for kids. I want to teach him to drive a cart, too. He's real strong and tough."

Reed has a message for those fortunate enough to find him when he has stopped for the evening and can sit and talk a while.

"People better do what they gotta do NOW. Tomorrow might be too late. Walking down the road with a donkey ain't for everybody, but there might be something else."

It's Friday morning, June 21, now. Harry's pack is loaded and he waits patiently tied to a tree as Reed finishes his breakfast before pushing off. They're heading for Gaylord and they are starting later than usual.

Almanack

Richard Milliman

Six months is way too long

IT ONLY TOOK ABOUT six months, but the politicians down at the state capital have finally agreed on how to handle an immediate state government budget crisis.

Gov. John Engler and his Republican backers on the one hand, and House Speaker Lewis Dodak and his Democratic supporters on the other, have been thrusting and parrying all year so far over how to spend what few financial resources the state currently has on hand.

Newly elected Gov. Engler, following up on the themes he embraced in his upset election campaign, tried to cut pretty deeply into state spending.

Democrats contended he wanted to cut too much, and in wrong places. Nobody suggested raising more money through new taxes.

Finally, the two sides sat down and agreed on what to do.

What they decided, in essence, was to put off final decisions until later.

And it took almost six months to come to even that sort-of decision.

OH, THEY DID AGREE on some slices in spending.

The so-called cultural and arts grants from the state will be reduced a bit; Mr. Engler proposed ending them for now. General assistance welfare for unemployed but able-bodied adults also was cut; again, Mr. Engler wanted to cut it out. Some other modifications of Mr. Engler's austerity proposals also were approved. There were some other items in the package, too.

An estimated 30,000 state employees will be expected to take four days off without pay sometime this fall; that should save a few million.

And payments to universities will be delayed until after September 30. That won't save anything really; but it will mean that those payments will be made in the next fiscal year (the state's fiscal year is October through September), which relieves this year's budget of obligation.

However, it will also mean that double payments with fall due during the next fiscal year, which only adds to the problems coming up. That is, of course, unless the state's budget-makers decide to delay part of next year's payments into the year after that, which could be mighty attractive about this time a year from now.

As a matter of fact, that's how the state got an October-through-September fiscal year in the first place. It used to be January-through-December, like most other fiscal years; but budget-makers in years past played around with the fiscal year's starting and ending times to delay payments or to double up on tax collections and for other budget gimmicks.

Then, as now, such tricks really solve nothing . . . they only delay the inevitable.

WHY DID THE TWO SIDES

decide to settle now? After six months of wrangling, it took only a few hours to come up with the compromises which are being heralded — cautiously, to be sure — as the art of politics and compromise at work.

Possibly the calendar helped. The compromise came in mid-June; legislators want to shut down the capitol and go home for the summer. Such sentiments may have added fuel to the urgency toward settlement.

Prompting from Wall Street may have helped. Gov. Engler and others kept repeating claims that Michigan was in financial trouble; he graphically illustrated the point most recently by displaying an empty wallet, and the resulting news photo gained wide circulation. There was some indication that eastern money markets were getting a bid edgy, and concerns about possible downgrading of the state's credit rating in national markets may have added more dimension to the situation.

At any rate, it is done for now. The saddest part of the whole six-month drama is that nothing really has been solved; solutions have been merely postponed.

Michigan's governmental financial crisis is just as real as ever, and is getting more serious as time goes on.

Next time, answers will be even more difficult.

HEART BURN

Most of us have experienced the symptoms of heartburn one time or another. Heartburn has nothing to do with the heart at all. It is an unpleasant burning type sensation or fullness felt behind the mid-chest area, especially after a heavy meal. It is caused by the acid stomach contents backing up into the food pipe. Between the stomach and the food pipe is a valve-like mechanism which prevents the acidic stomach content from backing up into the food pipe and causing discomfort that is typical of heartburn. Most of the times the discomfort is brief and relieved easily with antacids such as Maalox, Mylanta, or Tums, etc. In some individuals the symptoms may be severe enough to seek medical attention. On occasions it may even mimic a serious heart attack and lead to hospital admission and tests to exclude a heart attack.

Hiatal hernia is a term familiar to most people. This is actually a weakness in the valve action between the food pipe and stomach, at times causing symptoms of heartburn. There are certain situations that make one prone to develop this condition. Pregnancy is one such situation where symptoms of heartburn are commonly experienced.

Certain types of foods can bring on the symptoms of heartburn. Highly spiced food, coffee, peppermint, chocolate, etc., are notorious in this category. Alcohol and tobacco are also serious offenders.

If one is diagnosed to have hiatal hernia causing heartburn, certain measures will help make life easier.

•Weight Reduction.

•Proper sleeping position: remarkable effects can be observed by keeping the head end of the bed elevated. Pillows are not sufficient. 6-8" blocks should be placed under the legs to elevate the head end of the bed. Using a wedge is another alternative. People with heartburn problems should avoid sleeping in a waterbed.

•Diet: nothing should be eaten (not even water) for at least four hours before bedtime. Snacking between meals should be avoided. Highly seasoned and spicy food, caffeine in any form, chocolate, peppermint, etc., should be avoided.

•Alcohol and tobacco are great offenders and are to be avoided.

•Avoiding bending and stooping as well as avoiding tight clothing on the abdomen are also helpful measures.

The above measures, if strictly followed, are usually effective in controlling the symptoms of heartburn. In cases where the problem is persistent, special diagnostic tests and medical treatment will be required. Occasionally surgery may be required to correct the problem.

Engler Appoints Local Woman To State's Women's Commission

Pat Thomas, of Grayling, has been appointed by Governor John Engler, as the chairperson of the Michigan Women's Commission.

The Commission was established by Act 1, Public Acts of 1968. It consists of 15 members, broadly representative of all fields of interest to women. The Governor, with the advice and consent of the Senate, appoints members of the Commission for terms of three years. The Governor also designates a chair and a vice chair from members of the Commission.

Responsibilities of the Commission include: the study and review of the status of women; strengthening home life by directing attention to critical problems confronting women as wives, mothers, homemakers, and workers; promoting more effective methods for enabling women to develop their skills, continue their education and be retrained; and securing appropriate recognition of women's accomplishments and contributions to this state.

Upon review of relevant issues, the Commission reports to the Governor annually, with recommendations upon the issues studied.

FISHING THE AUSABLE—George (Sandy) Duffy, of Port Huron, enjoyed a day of fly fishing on the AuSable River on Tuesday, June 11 from his Iron Horse wheelchair. The excursion was televised on the PASS television network on June 17, at 6 p.m.

New Wheelchair Assists Fishermen In AuSable

It is not uncommon to see people enjoying the art of fly fishing on the mainstream of the AuSable River during the summer months. Donning waders, fishing vests, hats, and creels, men, women, and children of all ages can be seen wandering up and down the river in search of the elusive brown, brook, and rainbow trout. Some keep their catches; others return them to the cold, fast running waters to be caught again another day.

Several weeks ago, two avid fly fishermen from the Port Huron area also enjoyed a day on the AuSable, but they did not have to bother with cumbersome waders. Instead, George (Sandy) Duffy and Roger McCorville did their fishing from Iron Horse wheelchairs.

Duffy, who lost the use of his legs following an automobile accident, designs and produces these wheelchairs in a small factory in Port Huron. Each wheel of the Iron Horse wheelchair is equipped with independent suspension, allowing one wheel to remain stable as the other rises to roll over rocks or other materials. This differs from the conventional wheelchair which has a straight axle, like an automobile. To date, Duffy has produced 160 units and has sold them around the world, even Russia. Duffy's company motto is: "Because the world is not flat."

Duffy and McCorville, director of public affairs for Outdoors Forever, a private non-profit organization that promotes life-long access of the outdoors to all people, entered the river at the home of Mo and Paula Harwood and fished downstream to the residence of John and Elsie Cobb. Ernest Spratto, also of Port Huron, hosted the excursion. Spratto, another avid fly fisherman, owns a summer home on Wakeley Bridge Road. John Cobb, Carl (Mac) McPherson, and Todd Smith were on hand to lend support where needed.

"We didn't catch any fish, but we had a good time," said Spratto.

A PASS television network camera crew was on hand to record the unusual fishing excursion. It aired locally on the program Sportsnutz on June 17, at 6 p.m.

"The fishing trip was a means to show handicapped people that they can get out and participate in activities they enjoy," said Spratto. "And that includes fly fishing on the AuSable."

Minor Leagues Play All-Star Game June 29

The Grayling Little League will have a minor league "All-Star" game, this Saturday, June 29, at 1 p.m., at Millikin Field on North Down River Road.

The game will be played between two teams chosen from the nine and ten year old players who are eligible to move to the major league level next season.

Last year's "All-Star" game was an exciting match. The American League won the game by one run in the bottom of the ninth inning.

The concession stand will be open and during the game there will be a drawing for a Huffy "White Hawk" 10 speed bike and a Charmglow double burner gas grill. Everyone is invited to attend this event and see our youth in action.

Pet Care Tip

It's fun to pick up and hold a cat, but no fun for the cat if it's done the wrong way.

The Animal Protection Institute of America says that the correct way of lifting is to slip a hand under the chest, holding the front legs gently but firmly with the fingers and cupping the other hand under the cat's hindquarters.

Grabbing by the scruff of the neck, by the leg and even around the stomach can be harmful.

Customers Reap Benefits Of New Computer

Cornell Insurance customers are reaping the benefits of a new computer system installed at the independent insurance agency.

In addition to helping agents find the best policy value for customers, service has been improved. Agents can instantly access a customer's file and go to a specific part of the policy.

"Our agents now have the ability to display a customer's file on the computer screen as they are talking to them," said Paul Thomson, president of Cornell Insurance. "If a customer has lost a certificate of insurance, we can verify their coverage, print one very quickly, and get it out to them."

The expanded computer system will help agents keep track of individual insurance needs of its customers. If a customer says he intends to get a boat in July, Thomson said the computer system gives agents the ability to "flag" that file and get back to the customer when he needs insurance.

When a customer goes to Florida in the winter and has the insurance taken off his second car during the time he is gone, the computer can be programmed to tell the agent to call in the spring to remind the customer to reinstate the insurance. Sizeable discounts are available for persons of different ages, and the computer will also help insure these discounts are credited at the proper time.

The computer can also identify which customers are affected by changes in laws governing the use of snowmobiles, motorcycles, or boats, enabling Cornell to notify them of the changes. One of Cornell's companies offers a young driver discount at age 23 and the computer can identify which customers qualify, so letters can be sent to them.

Although Cornell has been serving the insurance needs of people in northern Michigan since 1916, their goal is to continue improving their service to people.

"We've been here for a good many years and we'll be here for a good many more," said Thomson. "Cornell has been a stable insurance agency and our expanded computers will help our staff continue to provide the best insurance service possible."

As an example of Cornell's stability, Thomson said it is one of a few Michigan insurance agencies to have experienced a catastrophe the magnitude of last May's devastating forest fire. The agency staff processed approximately 200 claims for over two million dollars. Thirty residences insured by Cornell were total losses.

"We really do care about the people here and all our staff feel it's a privilege and a pleasure to work, live, and play in the Grayling area," said Thomson.

Wedding Day

I never thought I'd ever
Live to see the day,
When I would have to give
My little girl away.

You know what's crazy, honey
Is that I can still recall,
When I used to burp you,
And change your pants and all.

But you'll always be my baby
No matter what you do,
And your mom and I will always
Be very proud of you!

Imagine, twenty years ago,
When I asked your mother's dad
If she and I could marry
And he acted kind of mad.

Now I think I understand
What made him act that way.
I never thought I'd live to see,
My daughter's Wedding Day.

Charles Foster To Highlight KCC Golf Outing

Local golf enthusiasts (both men and women) will have an opportunity to sharpen their skills at the Kirdand Foundation Golf Tournament, to be held Thursday, July 11, 1991.

One of the highlights of the show will include the Charles Foster Golf Show (sponsored by Lynx Golf). Foster is a talented professional golfer who combines a liking for people and his skills at golf, caricature art and close-up magic into a highly entertaining and informative golf clinic.

His program includes trick shots, instruction, audience participation, and one-on-one instruction, all crammed into a clinic session. The first part of the program includes mind-boggling trick shots, like hitting a golf ball out from under an egg without breaking the egg. Following the trick-shot exhibition, Foster teaches proper grip, stance, footwork, and form. He demonstrates a full repertoire of shots, including draw, fade, high, and low shots.

The $45 entry fee for the tournament includes green fees, lunch, dinner, and prizes. For further information, call 517-275-5121 extension 228, or the Grayling Country Club at 517-348-5618.

Grayling Township Board Regular Meeting June 11, 1991

Members present: Mike McNamara, John Medler, Ruth O'Mara, Monica Ashton. Members absent: none. Guests: James C. Failing, Floyd Millikin, Larry Winslow, Steve Grocholski, and Tim Petersen of Up-State Cablevision.

Supervisor called meeting to order at 7:30 p.m.

Motion by O'Mara/Medler, carried, to approve minutes of May 14, 1991, as presented. All ayes.

Motion by Ashton/McNamara, carried, to accept Treasurer's report for May 1991 as read. All ayes.

Board members received copies of Revenue and Expenditure reports for May 1991.

No Action Correspondence: Crawford AuSable School District Board Happenings, 5-91; Crawford Co. Tax Allocation Board, 1-00 mills allocated; Crawford Co. Sheriff's Dept. Report, 4-91.

Business. Steve Grocholski and Tim Petersen of Up-State Cablevision L.P., approached the board regarding securing a non-exclusive cable television franchise agreement for Grayling Township. The company's first area of interest is North Down River Road and M-72 East with a tower site near Stephan Bridge Road.

Motion by McNamara/O'Mara carried, to take action on proposed Up-State Cablevision Agreement to June 26, 1991, at 7:30 p.m., to allow for study of agreement and company references. All ayes, motion carried.

Floyd Millikin, James C. Failing, Don Craig, and Larry Winslow requested that Grayling Township support the following petition to the Michigan Department of Natural Resources regarding the Salling Lake Dam, signed by approximately 100 residents of Grayling Township.

AGGRIEVEMENT: PETITION: REQUEST FOR HEARING:

We, the concerned citizens of Crawford County, Michigan, hereby request a public hearing, pursuant to Michigan Statutes Annotated; Conservation § 13.27 (11), regarding the removal of the Salling Dam on the AuSable River, Section 12, T26N, R4W, Grayling Township, for the following reasons:

We believe the wildlife in the lake is more important to northern Michigan than the mud banks of a drained lake.

We do not believe that the lake destroys the quality of fishing further down the river.

We believe that the quality of life of the citizens that live on the lake should not be destroyed. Fortunes have been spent building homes and procuring property on the lake. Very high taxes have been paid by the property owners. These homes looking down on the mud and stump covered slopes of a drained lake will be depreciated horrendously.

We do not believe that special interests should be put ahead of the citizens of this County and State. The M.D.N.R. should be working for the people as a whole, not the few who would destroy our land and wildlife.

We believe the power house is a historical landmark and that this area should be declared a Historical Site.

We request an injunction be placed on the removal of the lake and that this issue be put to a vote of the people of the State of Michigan.

Motion by Ashton, Support by Medler, carried, to adopt the following resolution supporting the request for a public hearing regarding the Salling Lake Dam by residents of Grayling Township. Ayes: five, nays: none, absent: none. Motion carried.

RESOLUTION WHEREAS, the Grayling Township has received a petition from its constituency at its regular township board meeting, held on June 11, 1991, and

WHEREAS, said petition shows grave concern regarding the "draw-down" of Salling Lake Dam in Town 26 North, Range 4 West, Section of Grayling Township, Crawford County, Michigan and

WHEREAS, those concerns consist of matters which should be of supreme importance to the Michigan Department of Natural Resources such as: Destruction of waterfowl nesting areas; erosion of property tax base; concern regarding property owners whose deeds may not convey "riparian" rights and the disposition of such property where riparian rights are not owned; and the already rampant clear cutting of trees even beyond where the draw-down facility is being located and

WHEREAS, the signatories of the enclosed petition, due to newspaper accounts, feel that the Michigan Department of Natural Resources is placing special interest groups' objectives above the best interests of the property owners abutting Salling Lake and the citizens of this county and state as a whole, be it hereby

RESOLVED that the Grayling Township Board go on record as supporting these concerned citizens obvious objections to their quality of life and,

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, the Grayling Township Board go on record, by this resolution as supporting this request for a "true" public hearing regarding this matter and,

BE IT FINALLY RESOLVED, that a copy of this resolution be sent to the following for their action: John M. Engler, Governor; John D. Pridnia, State Senator, 36th District; Ralph Ostling, State Representative, 103rd District; Chairman, Senate Standing Committee, Natural Resources and Environmental Affairs; Chairman, House of Representatives Standing Committee, Conservation and Environment; President, National Audubon Society; President, Ducks Unlimited; Crawford County Board of Commissioners; Attorney General, State of Michigan; and the Director, Michigan Department of Natural Resources.

Motion by O'Mara, support by Ashton, to increase Planning Commission and Zoning Board of Appeals member's fees to $33 per meeting, Trustees' fees to $55 per meeting, Grayling Recreation Authority members' fees to $31, Board of Review and Planning Commission Secretary fees to $44. All ayes, motion carried.

Motion by O'Mara, support by McNamara, to authorize purchase of M.I.R.U.S. Land Use Maps for each Town and Range of Grayling Township at approximately $25 each. Roll call: all ayes, motion carried.

The Bible Speaks

Is Hell Real?

The U.S. News & World Report in the March 25, 1991, issue featured on their front page "The Rekindling of HELL." They said, "Record numbers of Americans now believe in a netherworld — and in a wide variety of after death punishments." Gallup Poll indicates that 78% of Americans believe in heaven, and 60% believe in hell. While 78% believe they are going to heaven, only 4% believe they are going to hell. But does public opinion influence the existence of such places as reality? Does personal opinion determine eternal destiny?

Why is there any question? Liberal theologians have done their best to deny the existence of either heaven or hell. Much of the modern revival of belief in hell is based upon common sense as people reflect upon the violence and suffering in modern society. Justice demands that there be something to compensate for the injustice all of us see everyday in the world. Most of the denial of hell comes from the same theologians who deny the deity of Jesus Christ. These theologians deny the miracles of Jesus Christ including His resurrection. The same theologians deny all supernatural existence and the very words of Jesus Christ in the Bible.

Will only 4% of Americans go to hell as most believe? Jesus Christ said more about hell than any other person. He said, "Enter ye in at the strait gate: for wide is the gate, and broad is the way, that leadeth to destruction, and many there be which go in thereat: Because strait is the gate, and narrow is the way, which leadeth unto life, and few there be that find it." (Matthew 7:13, 14). The results of Gallup Poll stand in contrast to the prophecy of Christ.

Jesus told us what the deceived will hear some day: "Not every one that saith unto me, Lord, Lord, shall enter into the kingdom of heaven; but he that doeth the will of my Father which is in heaven. Many will say to me in that day, Lord, Lord, have we not prophesied in thy name? and in thy name have cast out devils? and in thy name done many wonderful works?"

And then will I profess unto them, I never knew you: depart from me, ye that work iniquity." (Matthew 7:21-23). Lots of religious people will go straight to hell and burn for eternity.

God said, "But the fearful and unbelieving, and the abominable, and murderers, and whoremongers, and sorcerers, and idolaters, and all liars, shall have their part in the lake which burneth with fire and brimstone: which is the second death." (Revelation 21:8). Lots of wicked sinners will burn for eternity in hell. "And whosoever was not found written in the book of life was cast into the lake of fire." (Revelation 20:15). Unbelievers will know hell is real within five minutes of death. Lying liberals can neither put out the fires of hell or take you to heaven. Will you trust Jesus Christ or public opinion? Eternity is forever!

On Wings of Freedom

July 4, 1776... a fledgling nation breaks ties with her mother country, Great Britain, ready to spread her wings on her flight to freedom.

In a period of more than one hundred years, the American colonies had grown to thirteen in number, maturing into a nation possessing religious and political views differing from those of Great Britain, culminating in our War for Independence. The colonists would tolerate oppression and injustice no longer. They would govern their own, retaining their rights, including that of religious freedom, for which they had struggled so long, and settle for nothing less than their claims to "life, liberty, and the pursuit of happiness."

Thus, the Declaration of Independence was conceived, forming a new nation... "the Thirteen United States of America." She would soar on eagle wings, an enduring panorama of freedom and democracy spread out before her.

This Fourth of July, as resounding rainbows of fire reach out into the night, may we pray that the candles of freedom may ever burn bright.

HAPPY BIRTHDAY AMERICA!

The Junior Lien Bonds shall be designated WATER SUPPLY AND SEWAGE DISPOSAL SYSTEM JUNIOR LIEN REVENUE BOND, SERIES 1991A AND SERIES 1991B, each series shall be dated as of the date of initial delivery, each series shall consist of one (1) single fully-registered nonconvertible bond and shall be payable in principal installments serially on July 1 of each year, as shown on Exhibit A of the Bond Form set forth in Section 8 for each series of the Junior Lien Bonds. The Series 1991A Bond shall be issued in the denomination of $1,140,000, and the Series 1991B Bond shall be issued in the denomination of $777,000.

The Junior Lien Bonds are expected to be delivered to the FmHA as initial purchaser thereof in installments (the "delivery installments") and each delivery installment shall be noted on the registration grid set forth on the respective Junior Lien Bond. If the FmHA shall no longer be the registered owner of either series of the Junior Lien Bonds, then the principal of and interest on the Junior Lien Bonds which are transferred shall be the registered owner of record as of the fifteenth day of the month preceding the payment date by check or draft mailed to the registered owner at the registered address. Such date of determination of the registered owner for purposes of payment of principal or interest may be changed by the Issuer to conform to future market practice. The Issuer's Treasurer is hereby authorized to execute an agreement with any successor Transfer Agent.

The Transfer Agent shall record on the registration books payment by the Issuer of each installment of principal or interest or both when made and the canceled checks or drafts representing such payments shall be returned to and retained by the Issuer's Treasurer, which canceled checks or drafts shall be conclusive evidence of such payments and the obligation of the Issuer with respect to such payments shall be discharged to the extent of such payments.

Upon payment by the Issuer of all outstanding principal of and interest on either series of the Junior Lien Bonds, the registered owner thereof shall deliver said bond to the Issuer for cancellation.

The sale of the Junior Lien Bonds to the FmHA at an interest rate of five percent (5%) per annum and at the par value thereof is hereby approved. The Issuer's Treasurer is hereby authorized to deliver the Junior Lien Bonds in accordance with the delivery instructions of the FmHA, after approval or receipt of an order of exception of the Department of Treasury.

The Junior Lien Bonds or installments thereof will be subject to prepayment prior to maturity, in the manner and at the times as provided in the form of the Junior Lien Bonds set forth in Section 8.

Section 6. Bond Transfer. The Transfer Agent shall keep or cause to be kept, at its principal office, sufficient books for the registration and transfer of the Bonds, which shall at all times be open to inspection by the Issuer. The Transfer Agent shall transfer or cause to be transferred on said books Bonds presented for transfer, as hereinafter provided and subject to such reasonable regulations as it may prescribe.

Any Bond may be transferred upon the books required to be kept by the Transfer Agent pursuant to this Section, by the person in whose name it is registered, in person or by his duly authorized attorney, upon surrender of such Bond for transfer, accompanied by delivery of a duly executed written instrument of transfer in a form approved by the Transfer Agent. Whenever any Bond or Bonds shall be surrendered for transfer, the Transfer Agent shall record such transfer on the registration books and shall register such transfer on the registration grid attached to the Bond. At the time of such transfer the Transfer Agent shall note on the Bond the outstanding principal amount thereof at the time of such transfer. In the event any Bond is called for prepayment in part, the Transfer Agent, upon surrender of the Bond, shall note on the Bond the principal amount prepaid and shall return the Bond to the registered owner thereof together with the prepayment amount on the prepayment date. The Transfer Agent shall require the payment by the bondholder requesting the transfer of any tax or other governmental charge required to be paid with respect to the transfer. The Issuer shall not be required (i) to issue, register the transfer of, or exchange any Bond during a period beginning at the opening of business fifteen days before the day of the mailing of a notice of redemption of Bonds or portions thereof selected for redemption under Section 8 of this Ordinance and ending at the close of business on the day of that mailing, or (ii) to register the transfer or exchange any Bond or portion thereof so selected for redemption.

Section 7. Execution and Delivery of the Junior Lien Bond. The Junior Lien Bonds shall be signed by the Issuer's Mayor and countersigned by the Issuer's Clerk and shall have the corporate seal of the Issuer impressed thereon. After execution, the Junior Lien Bonds shall be held by the Issuer's Treasurer for delivery to the FmHA. No Junior Lien Bond or any installment thereof shall be valid until registered by the Issuer's Treasurer, or upon transfer by the FmHA and thereafter, by an authorized representative of the Transfer Agent.

Section 8. Bond Form. The form and tenor of the Junior Lien Bonds shall be substantially as follows with appropriate variations for the Series 1991A Bonds and Series 1991B Bonds and subject to appropriate variation upon issuance of Additional Bonds:

COUNTY OF CRAWFORD
CITY OF GRAYLING
WATER SUPPLY AND SEWAGE DISPOSAL SYSTEM
JUNIOR LIEN REVENUE BOND
SERIES 1991

No.R-1

The City of Grayling, County of Crawford, State of Michigan (the "Issuer"), for value received, hereby promises to pay to the registered owner hereof, but only out of the hereinafter described Net Revenues of the Water Supply and Sewage Disposal System of the Issuer, including all appurtenances, additions, extensions and improvements thereon (the "System"), the sum of

on the dates and in the principal installment amounts set forth in Exhibit A attached hereto and made a part hereof, with interest on said installments from the date each said installment is delivered to the holder hereof as set forth on the registration grid hereon until paid at the rate of five percent (5%) per annum, payable on January 1, 1992, and semiannually thereafter. Both principal of and interest on this bond are payable in lawful money of the United States of America by check or draft mailed to the registered holder at the address shown on the registration books of the Issuer and for the prompt payment thereof, the Net Revenues of the System, after provision has been made for reasonable and necessary expenses of operation, administration and maintenance thereof (the "Net Revenues"), and for the requirements of the outstanding Water Supply and Sewage Disposal System Revenue Bonds, dated January 1, 1968, authorized by Ordinance No. 25, in the original principal amount of $300,000 (the "Outstanding Bonds"), are hereby irrevocably pledged and a statutory lien thereon is hereby created which is subject only to the prior lien in favor of the Outstanding Bonds.

This bond is a single, fully-registered, non-convertible bond in the principal sum indicated above issued pursuant to Ordinance No. 91-1, ("Ordinance No. 91-1") duly adopted by the Issuer on June 24, 1991, and under and in full compliance with the Constitution and statutes of the State of Michigan, including specifically Act 94, Public Acts of Michigan, 1933, as amended, for the purpose of paying part of the cost of acquiring and constructing improvements to the System, including generally improvements and extensions to the sewage treatment facility and attachments and appurtenances necessary thereto. This bond is issued in equal standing and priority of lien with the Issuer's Water Supply and Sewage Disposal System Junior Lien Revenue Bond, Series 1991, issued pursuant to Ordinance No. 91-1. For a complete statement of the revenues from which, and the conditions under which this bond is payable, a statement of the conditions under which additional bonds of equal and prior standing may hereafter be issued, and the general covenants and provisions pursuant to which this bond is issued, reference is made to the above-described Ordinances.

Principal installments of this bond are subject to prepayment prior to maturity, in inverse chronological order, at the option of the Issuer on any interest payment date at par and accrued interest to the date fixed for prepayment.

In addition, while this bond is held by the Farmer's Home Administration, an agency of the United States Department of Agriculture, or its successor ("FmHA"), principal installments of this bond are subject to prepayment upon the request of FmHA if at any time it should appear to FmHA that the Issuer is able to refinance this bond by obtaining a loan for such purposes from responsible cooperative or private sources at reasonable rates and terms.

Thirty days notice of the call of any principal installments for prepayment shall be given by mail to the registered owner at the registered address. The principal installments so called for prepayment shall not bear interest after the date fixed for prepayment, provided funds are on hand to prepay said installments.

This bond shall be registered as to principal and interest on the books of the Issuer kept by the transfer agent and registrar and noted hereon, after which it shall be transferable only upon presentation to such transfer agent and registrar with a written transfer satisfactory to such transfer agent and registrar by the registered holder or his attorney in fact. Such transfer shall be noted hereon and upon the books of the Issuer kept for that purpose.

This bond is a self-liquidating bond and is not a general obligation of the Issuer and does not constitute an indebtedness of the Issuer within any constitutional, statutory or charter limitation, but is payable, both as to principal and interest, solely from the Net Revenues of the System after provision for the requirements of the Outstanding Bonds.

The Issuer hereby covenants and agrees to fix and maintain at all times while any installments of this bond shall be outstanding, such rates for service furnished by the System as shall be sufficient to provide for payment of the interest upon and the principal of all such installments of this bond payable from the Net Revenues of the System as and when the same become due and payable, and to create a bond and interest redemption fund (including a bond reserve account) therefor, to provide for the payment of expenses of administration and operation and such expenses for maintenance of the System as are necessary to preserve the same in good repair and working order, and to provide for such other expenditures and funds for the System as are required by the above-described Ordinances.

It is hereby certified and recited that all acts, conditions and things required by law precedent to and in the issuance of this bond have been done and performed in regular and due time and form as required by law.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, the City of Grayling, County of Crawford, State of Michigan, by its City Council, has caused this bond to be signed in the name of said City by its Mayor and to be countersigned by its City Clerk, and its corporate seal to be hereunto affixed, all as of June 28, 1991.

Section 9. Security for Bonds. Neither the Bonds nor the interest thereon shall be a general obligation of the Issuer but each shall be payable solely from the Net Revenues after provision has been made for the Outstanding Bonds. To pay such principal and interest as and when the same shall become due, there is hereby created a statutory lien upon the whole of the Net Revenues of the System after provision for the requirements of the Outstanding Bonds, subject only to the prior lien in favor of the Outstanding Bonds and any additional bonds of equal standing with the Outstanding Bonds, to continue until the payment in full of the principal of and interest on the Bonds.

Section 10. Budget. Immediately upon the effective date of this Ordinance for the remainder of the current Fiscal Year, and thereafter prior to the beginning of each Fiscal Year the Issuer shall prepare an annual budget of the System for the ensuing Fiscal Year itemized on the basis of monthly requirements, a copy of which shall be mailed without request by the FmHA to the FmHA (if and as long as the Government is holder of any of the Bonds) for review prior to adoption, and upon written request to any other holders of the Bonds.

Section 11. Remedies. The registered owners of the Bonds may, by suit, action, or other proceedings, protect and enforce the statutory lien established by the Ordinance and enforce and compel the performance of all duties of the officials of the Issuer, including, but not limited to, compelling the Issuer by proceedings in a court of competent jurisdiction or other appropriate forum to establish and maintain the rates and charges and to perform the other obligations of the Issuer set forth in the Ordinance.

Section 12. Custodian of Funds; Funds. The Issuer's Treasurer shall be custodian of all funds belonging to or associated with the System. Such funds shall be deposited in the Depository Bank. The Issuer's Treasurer shall execute a fidelity bond in an amount required by the FmHA with a surety company licensed to conduct business in the State of Michigan and approved by the FmHA. The United States of America, acting through the FmHA, and the Issuer shall be named as co-obligees in such bond and the amount thereof shall not be reduced without the prior written consent of the FmHA. The Issuer's Treasurer is hereby directed to create and maintain the following funds and accounts into which the proceeds of the Bonds and the Revenues shall be deposited in the manner and at the times provided in this Ordinance, which accounts shall be established and maintained, except as otherwise provided, so long as any of the Bonds remain unpaid, except as otherwise provided in this Ordinance.

The City Treasurer shall establish separate funds or accounts for each series of bonds in the event the FmHA so requires.

(A) CONSTRUCTION FUND. The proceeds of the Junior Lien Bonds shall be deposited in the CITY OF GRAYLING WATER SUPPLY AND SEWAGE DISPOSAL SYSTEM JUNIOR LIEN SERIES 1991 CONSTRUCTION FUND (the "Construction Fund") in account separate from other monies of the Issuer established with the Depository Bank. Before delivery of the Bonds, the Issuer shall also deposit into the Construction Fund a cash contribution in the amount required by FmHA. In the event the Government is a holder of either series of the Junior Lien Bonds, then, if required by the FmHA, the Construction Fund shall be established as a supervised bank account and such proceeds shall be withdrawn on the orders of the Issuer only on checks signed by the Issuer's Treasurer and countersigned by the District Director of the FmHA. Said moneys shall be used solely for the purposes for which the Junior Lien Bonds are issued.

Any unexpended balance of the proceeds of the sale of the Junior Lien Bonds remaining after completion of the Project herein authorized may be used for further improvements, enlargements and extensions of the System in the discretion of the Issuer. Any remaining balance after such expenditure shall be paid into the Junior Lien Redemption Fund (as hereinafter provided) and shall be credited to the Bond Reserve Account for or used for the prepayment of installments of the respective series of Junior Lien Bonds.

After completion of the Project and disposition of remaining proceeds, if any, of the Junior Lien Bonds pursuant to the provisions of this Section, the Construction Fund shall be closed.

(B) RECEIVING FUND. Pursuant to Section 15 of Ordinance No. 25, the Revenues of the System shall continue to be deposited in the Receiving Fund established by Ordinance No. 25 (the "Receiving Fund"), and moneys so deposited therein shall be transferred, expended and used only in the manner and order as follows:

(1) Operation and Maintenance Fund. There shall first be withdrawn from the Receiving Fund monthly and set aside in and transferred to the Operation and Maintenance Fund established by Section 15(a) of Ordinance No. 25, an amount sufficient to meet the requirements of Section 15(a) of Ordinance No. 25 relative to the Operation and Maintenance Fund, which amount shall be sufficient to pay the reasonable and necessary current expenses for the ensuing month of administering, operating and maintaining the System, including the Project.

(2) Outstanding Bonds Requirements. After the transfer required in (1) above, there shall next be withdrawn from the Receiving Fund monthly and set aside in and transferred to the Bond and Interest Redemption Fund established by Section 15(b) of Ordinance No. 25 Revenues sufficient to meet all requirements for the Bond and Interest Redemption Fund (including the Bond Reserve Account) as established in Section 15(b) of Ordinance No. 25 and the Revenues so deposited shall be used as required by Section 15(b) of Ordinance No. 25.

(3) Junior Lien Revenue Bonds - Bond and Interest Redemption Fund. There is hereby established a separate account known as the JUNIOR LIEN REVENUE BONDS - BOND AND INTEREST REDEMPTION FUND (the "Junior Lien Redemption Fund"). After the transfers required in (1) and (2) above, and after meeting all of the requirements for Outstanding Bonds as specified in Section 15(b) of Ordinance No. 25, Revenues shall be withdrawn monthly (except as otherwise provided in this paragraph) from the Receiving Fund, before any other expenditures or transfers therefrom, and set aside in and transferred to the Junior Lien Redemption Fund for payment of principal of and interest on the Junior Lien Bonds and to fund the Junior Lien Bond Reserve Account hereinafter established. Upon any delivery of an installment of the Junior Lien Bonds there shall be set aside at the time of such delivery and on the first day of each month of the Fiscal Year thereafter to the next interest payment date an amount equal to that fraction of the amount of interest due on the next interest payment date on said installment so delivered, the numerator of which is 1 and the denominator of which is the number of full and partial months from the date of said delivery to the next interest payment date. There shall also be set aside on the first day of each month of the Fiscal Year an amount not less than 1/6 of the amount of interest due on the next interest payment date on all outstanding installments of the Junior Lien Bonds not delivered during the then current interest payment period. There shall also be set aside at the time of the delivery of the initial installment of the Junior Lien Bonds and on the first day of each month of the Fiscal Year thereafter to the next principal payment date an amount equal to that fraction of principal of the Junior Lien Bonds due on the next principal payment date, the numerator of which is 1 and the denominator of which is the number of full and partial months of the Fiscal Year from the date of said delivery to the next principal payment date. Commencing on the first day of the Fiscal Year next succeeding the Fiscal Year in which the first installment is delivered there shall be set aside each month of the Fiscal Year an amount not less than 1/12 of the amount of the principal installment of the Junior Lien Bond due on the next principal payment date.

If for any reason there is a failure to make such monthly deposit in the amounts required, then the entire amount of the deficiency shall be set aside and deposited in the Junior Lien Redemption Funds out of the Revenues first received thereafter which are not required by the Ordinance to be deposited in the Operation and Maintenance Fund or in the Bond and Interest Redemption Fund, which amount shall be in addition to the regular monthly deposit required during such succeeding month or months.

There is hereby established in the Junior Lien Redemption Fund a separate account known as the 1991 JUNIOR LIEN BOND RESERVE ACCOUNT (the "Junior Lien Bond Reserve Account"). Commencing the first day of the month after delivery of the Bonds, after provision for the current requirements of the Bond and Interest Redemption Fund there shall be withdrawn from the Receiving Fund monthly and set aside in and transferred to the Junior Lien Bond Reserve Account the sum of at least $11,300 per month until there is accumulated in such fund the sum of $113,000. Except as hereinafter provided, no further deposits need be made into the Junior Lien Redemption Fund for credit to the Junior Lien Bond Reserve Account once the sum of $113,000 has been credited thereto. Except as hereinafter provided, moneys in the Junior Lien Bond Reserve Account shall be used solely for the payment of the principal of and interest on Bonds as to which there would otherwise be default.

If at any time it shall be necessary to use moneys in the Junior Lien Bond Reserve Account for payment of principal of and interest on the Bonds, then the moneys so used shall be replaced from the Net Revenues first received thereafter which are not required by this Ordinance to be used for current principal and interest requirements or bond reserve fund requirements for the Outstanding Bonds or for current principal and interest requirements for the Bonds.

No further payments need be made into the Junior Lien Redemption Fund after enough of the Bonds have been retired so that the amount then held in the Junior Lien Redemption Fund (including the Junior Lien Bond Reserve Account), is equal to the entire amount of principal and interest which will be payable at the time of maturity of the Bonds then outstanding.

Any amount on deposit in the Junior Lien Redemption Fund in excess of the requirements for paying principal of and interest on Bonds due during the ensuing eighteen months, plus the requirements of the Junior Lien Bond Reserve Account, may be used by the Issuer for redemption of Bonds in the manner set forth in Section 8 hereof.

The moneys in the Junior Lien Redemption Fund and the Junior Lien Bond Reserve Account shall be invested in accordance with Section 14 of this Ordinance, and profit realized or income earned on such investment shall be used or transferred as provided in said Section.

(4) Replacement Fund. There shall next be withdrawn monthly from the Receiving Fund and set aside in and transferred to the Replacement Fund any amounts necessary to maintain the Replacement Fund in the amount established by Section 15 of Ordinance 25.

(5) Improvement Fund. There shall next be withdrawn monthly from the Receiving Fund and set aside in and transferred to the Improvement Fund any amounts necessary to maintain the Improvement Fund in the amount established by Section 15(d) of Ordinance 25.

Section 13. Reverse Flow of Funds; Surplus Moneys. In the event the moneys in the Receiving Fund are insufficient to provide for the current requirements of the Operation and Maintenance Account, the Bond and Interest Redemption Fund (including the Bond Reserve Account), the Junior Lien Redemption Fund (including the Junior Lien Bond Reserve Account), the Replacement Fund, or the Improvement Fund, any moneys and/or securities in the funds of the System established by this Ordinance shall be transferred, first, to the Operation and Maintenance Account, and second, to the Bond and Interest Redemption Fund, and third, to the Junior Lien Redemption Fund (including the Junior Lien Bond Reserve Account), fourth to the Replacement Fund, and fifth to the Improvement Fund.

All moneys remaining in the Receiving Fund at the end of any Fiscal Year after satisfying the requirements of Section 15 of Ordinance No. 25 and Section 12(B) of this Ordinance may be transferred (i) to the Bond and Interest Redemption Fund and used to call Outstanding Bonds as provided in Section 6 of Ordinance No. 25, (ii) to the Junior Lien Redemption Fund or (iii) to the Replacement Fund or the Improvement Fund and used for the purpose for which such funds were established; provided, however, that if there should be a deficit in the Operation and Maintenance Fund, the Bond and Interest Redemption Fund or the Junior Lien Redemption Fund, then moneys so remaining in the Receiving Fund shall be transferred to the extent of such deficit to the funds in the priority set forth in Section 12 hereof.

Section 14. Investments. Moneys in the funds and accounts established herein and moneys derived from the proceeds of sale of the Bonds may be invested by the City Council on behalf of the Issuer in Government obligations or obligations of the principal of and interest on which is fully guaranteed by the United States of America, or certificates of deposit of a bank insured by the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation. Investment of moneys in the Junior Lien Redemption Fund being accumulated for payment of the next maturing principal or interest payment on the Bonds shall be limited to Government obligations bearing maturity dates prior to the date of the next maturing principal or interest payment on the Bonds. Investment of moneys in the Junior Lien Bond Reserve Account shall be limited to Government obligations bearing maturity dates, or subject to redemption at the option of the holder thereof, not later than five years from the date of the investment. Securities representing investments shall be kept on deposit with the Depository Bank. Profit realized or interest income earned on investment of funds in the Junior Lien Redemption Fund and, at any time after it is fully funded, the Junior Lien Bond Reserve Account, shall be deposited in or credited to the Receiving Fund.

Moneys in any other fund or account of the System shall be invested and transferred as provided in Section 17 of Ordinance No. 25.

Section 15. Rates and Charges. Rates and charges for the services of the System have been or will be fixed pursuant to Ordinance in an amount sufficient to pay the expenses of administration, operation and maintenance of the System, to pay the principal and interest requirements on all bonds payable from Revenues, including the Outstanding Bonds and the Bonds, and to meet all other requirements and comply with the covenants provided by Ordinance No. 25 and this Ordinance. The Issuer hereby covenants and agrees to fix and maintain at all times while any of the Outstanding Bonds and the Bonds shall be outstanding such rates for service furnished by the System as shall be sufficient to provide for the foregoing expenses, requirements and covenants, and to create a bond and interest redemption fund (including a bond reserve account) for all such bonds. The rates and charges for all services and facilities rendered by the System shall be reasonable and just, taking into consideration the costs and value of the System and the cost of maintaining, repairing, and operating the same and the amounts necessary for the retirement of all bonds payable from Revenues and accruing interest on such bonds.

Section 16. No Free Service. No free service shall be furnished by the System to any individual, firm or corporation, public or private or to any public agency or instrumentality.

Section 17. Covenants. The Issuer covenants and agrees that so long as any of the Bonds hereby authorized remain unpaid as follows:

a) It will comply with applicable State laws and regulations and continually operate and maintain the System in good condition.

b) It will comply with provisions and covenants of Ordinance No. 25 and this Ordinance.

c) (i) It will maintain complete books and records relating to the operation and financial affairs of the System. If the Government is the holder of any of the Bonds, the FmHA shall have the right to inspect the System and the records, accounts, and data relating thereto at all reasonable times.

(ii) It will cause an annual audit of such books of record and account for the preceding Fiscal Year to be made each year by a recognized independent certified public accountant, or will prepare a report for such purpose in forms prepared by the Department of Treasury, and will mail a copy of such audit or report to the FmHA, or to the manager of the syndicate or account purchasing the Bonds, and the Department of Treasury. Such audit shall be completed and so made available not later than three (3) months after the close of each Fiscal Year.

d) The Issuer will maintain and carry, for the benefit of the holders of the Bonds, insurance on all physical properties of the System, of the kinds and in the amounts normally carried by municipalities engaged in the operation of similar systems. All moneys received for losses under any such insurance policies shall be applied to the replacement and restoration of the property damaged or destroyed, and to the extent not so used, shall be used for the purpose of calling Bonds. If the Government is a holder of any of the Bonds, then said insurance shall be in amounts not less than such amounts as may be specified by LETTER OF INTENT TO MEET CONDITIONS, Form FmHA 442.46 and shall be approved by the FmHA.

e) It will not borrow any money from any source or enter into any contract or agreement to incur any other liabilities that may in any way be a lien upon the Revenues or otherwise encumber the System so as to impair Revenues therefrom, without obtaining the prior written consent of the FmHA (if the Government is a holder of any of the Bonds), nor shall it transfer or use any portion of the Revenues derived in the operation of the System for any purpose not herein specifically authorized.

f) It will not voluntarily dispose of or transfer its title to the System or any part thereof, including lands and interest in lands, by sale, mortgage, lease or other encumbrance, without obtaining the prior written consent of the FmHA if it is a holder of any of the Bonds.

g) Any extensions or improvements of the System shall be made according to sound engineering principles and plans and specifications shall be submitted to the FmHA (if the Government is the holder of any of the Bonds) for prior review.

(h) The Issuer hereby covenants that no future series of bonds with a lien senior to the Bonds will be issued.

(i) The Issuer shall not invest, reinvest or accumulate any moneys deemed to be proceeds of the Bonds pursuant to the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended, (the "Code") and the applicable regulations thereunder, or under the predecessor code thereof, in such a manner as to cause the bonds to be "arbitrage bonds" within the meaning of the Code and such applicable regulations. The Issuer hereby covenants that, to the extent permitted by law, it will take all actions within its control necessary to maintain the exemption of the interest on the Bonds from the general federal income taxation (as opposed to alternative minimum income or other indirect taxation) under federal tax law existing as of the date of delivery of the Bonds.

Section 18. Additional Bonds. The Issuer may issue additional bonds of equal, but not prior, standing with the Junior Lien Bond for any of the following purposes:

a) To complete construction of the Project according to the plans set forth in Section 2, in the amount necessary therefor; or

b) For the purpose of making reasonable repairs, replacements, improvements, enlargements or extensions of the System; or

c) To refund any Outstanding Bonds.

While the Government is the holder of any of the Bonds, Additional Bonds may be issued only if the FmHA consents to such issue in writing. Unless the Government holds all of the Bonds, Additional Bonds may be issued only if the Augmented Net Revenues of the System were 120 percent of the average annual debt service requirements on all Bonds then outstanding and those Additional Bonds proposed to be issued, net of any Bonds to be refunded by the Additional Bonds. The adoption by the legislative body of the Issuer of an ordinance authorizing the issuance of such Additional Bonds shall be conclusive as to the existence of conditions permitting the issuance thereof.

The funds established by this Ordinance shall be applied to all Additional Bonds; all Revenues from any such completion, repair, replacement, improvement, enlargement or extension financed from the proceeds of the Additional Bonds shall be paid, as received, into the Receiving Fund.

Except as otherwise specifically provided in this Section and Ordinance No. 25, so long as any of the Outstanding Bonds and the Bonds are outstanding, no additional bonds or other obligations pledging any portion of the Revenues of the System shall be incurred or issued by the Issuer unless the same shall be junior and subordinate in all respects to the Bonds.

Section 19. Ordinance Shall Constitute Contract. The provisions of the Ordinance shall constitute a contract between the Issuer and the bondholders. After the issuance of the Bonds the Ordinance shall not be repealed or amended in any respect which will adversely affect the rights and interests of the bondholders, nor shall the Issuer adopt any law, ordinance or resolution in any way adversely affecting the rights of the holders of the Bonds so long as the Bonds or interest thereon remains unpaid.

Section 20. Refunding of Bonds. If at any time it shall appear to the FmHA (while the Government is a holder of any of the Bonds) that the Issuer is able, upon call for redemption or with the consent of the FmHA, to refund the Bonds by obtaining a loan for such purposes from responsible cooperative or private credit sources, at reasonable rates and terms for loans for similar purposes and period of time, upon request of the Government, the Issuer will apply for and accept such loan in sufficient amount to repay the Government, and will take all such actions as may be required in connection therewith.

Section 21. Default of Issuer. If there shall be default in the Junior Lien Redemption Fund provisions of this Ordinance or in the payment of principal or interest of any of the Bonds, upon the filing of a suit by any holder of the Bonds, any court having jurisdiction of the action may appoint a receiver to administer the System on behalf of the Issuer with power to charge and collect rates and charges sufficient to provide for the payment of the Bonds payable from Revenues and for the payment of administration, operation and maintenance expenses and the payment of the Outstanding Bonds and to apply Revenues in accordance with Ordinance No. 25, this Ordinance and the laws of the State of Michigan.

The Issuer hereby agrees to transfer to any bona fide receiver or other subsequent operator of the System, pursuant to any valid court order in a proceeding brought to enforce collection or payment of Issuer obligations, all contracts and other rights of the Issuer conditionally, for such time only as such receiver or operation shall operate by authority of the court.

The holders of twenty percent (20%) of the Bonds may enforce the statutory lien and the covenants of the Issuer in the event of default, and may require by mandatory injunction the raising of rates and charges to the extent permitted by Issuer Ordinances.

Section 22. Ordinance Subject to Michigan Law and FmHA Regulations. The provisions of the Ordinance are subject to the laws of the State of Michigan and to the present and future regulations of the FmHA (while the Government is a holder of any of the Bonds) as are not inconsistent with the express provisions hereof and Michigan Law.

Section 23. Issuer Subject to Loan Agreement. So long as the Government is holder of any of the Bonds, the Issuer shall be subject to the loan agreement (form FmHA 442.47) with the FmHA and shall comply with all provisions thereof.

Section 24. Sale of Bonds. After receipt of approval from the State Department of Treasury or receipt of an order of exception from such approval the City Clerk is hereby authorized to privately negotiate the sale of the Junior Lien Bond to the FmHA at the interest rate approved in Section 5 hereof.

Section 25. Conflict and Severability. All ordinances, resolutions and orders or parts thereof in conflict with the provisions of the Ordinance are to the extent of such conflict hereby repealed, and each section of the Ordinance and each subdivision of any section thereof is hereby declared to be independent, and the finding or holding of any section or subdivision thereof to be invalid or void shall not be deemed or held to affect the validity of any other section or subdivision of the Ordinance.

Section 26. Paragraph Headings. The paragraph headings in the Ordinance are furnished for convenience of reference only and shall not be considered to be a part of the Ordinance.

Section 27. Publication and Recordation. The Ordinance shall be published in full promptly after its adoption in the Crawford County Avalanche, a newspaper of general circulation in the Issuer, qualified under State law to publish legal notices, and shall be recorded in the Ordinance Book of the Issuer, which recording shall be authenticated by the signature of the Mayor and City Clerk.

Section 28. Effective Date. The Ordinance is hereby determined by the City to be immediately necessary for the preservation of the peace, health and safety of the Issuer and shall be in full force and effect from and after its passage and publication as required by law.

Passed and adopted by the City Council of the City of Grayling, County of Crawford, State of Michigan, on June 24, 1991, and approved by me on June 24, 1991.

Your Social Security

Many people in this area are receiving offers from private companies to help them obtain a Social Security number for a child, or change the name on their Social Security card. As you might expect, a fee is charged for this "service."

According to Len Connolly, Social Security District Manager in Traverse City, "It happens regularly, and especially at this time of year when many brides are changing their names. These companies offer to sell services and information that are available free by simply calling Social Security and asking for them."

"It actually takes longer to obtain a Social Security number, or get a name change, by going through these private companies," Connolly stated. "That's because they can't issue the number. They can only forward your application and documents to Social Security for processing. Of course, in the meantime, they obtain personal information from your application before forwarding it on."

"Call Social Security before paying a fee for any Social Security information or services. We can probably provide the service faster -- and of course, free of charge,"

Connolly said.

Call toll-free 1-800-234-5772, from 7 a.m. to 7 p.m., weekdays. The Traverse City office, at 1111 E. Front Street, is open 9 a.m. to 4:30 p.m., Monday through Friday. The phone number is (616) 946-8361.

A representative is at the County Building in Grayling on the first and third Tuesday of each month, 10:30 a.m. to 2 p.m. concern about the DNR's apparent lack of concern for its obligations to the residents of Crawford County. He said the state owns most of the land in Crawford County and 95% of the gas, mineral, and timber rights. The people of Michigan paid $3.5 million for a new DNR field office that is only open to the public from 8 - 10 a.m., private groups are financing and implementing streambank erosion controls to improve fish habitat, and during a recent visit to the different DNR public access sites along the mainstream of the AuSable River, Smock said there were no trash receptacles in place for people to dispose of their refuse.

"If the DNR wants friends in Crawford County then the DNR needs to be a friend," he said.

COMMISSION SUPPORTS GRAYLING TOWNSHIP RESOLUTION

The commission unanimously supported a Grayling Township resolution regarding the township's concern of the DNR's "draw-down" of the Salling Lake Dam. The resolution questions the effect of the draw-down regarding the "destruction of waterfowl nesting areas, erosion of property tax base, concern regarding property owners whose deeds may not convey "riparian" rights and the disposition of such property where riparian rights are not owned, and the already rampant clearcutting of trees even beyond where the draw-down facility is being located."

The resolution addresses concern of township petitioners who feel the DNR is placing "special interest" groups' objectives above the best interests of the property owners abutting Salling Lake and the citizens of Crawford County and the state. It also supports the request of the petitioners for a "true" public hearing regarding the reasons for the draw-down.

Long asked the commission to go one step further and go on record supporting the existence of the city dam, both for the aesthetics the millpond brings to the city park and the wildlife habitat it provides for a variety of wildlife species.

COUNTY RECEIVES REVENUES

State revenue sharing money totalling $17,814.40, delayed in May, has been received by County Treasurer Joseph Wakeley. He told commissioners that September's payment will probably also be delayed for about 14 days for cash flow purposes, but that Lansing has assured him there will be no reduction in the payment. Wakeley told commissions that beginning in 1992, state revenue sharing payments will be based on the 1990 census, which will mean additional revenue for Crawford County whose population increased from about 9,500 in the 1980 census to about 12,200 persons in the 1990 census.

LIVESTOCK CLAIM APPROVED

The commission agreed to pay Mark Law, of 9738 Cameron Bridge Road, Frederic, $123.25 for the destruction of several domestic turkeys that were killed by a dog.

Livestock claims are paid from dog license funds. Wakeley explained that the original reason for dog licensing laws back in 1919 was to provide funds for livestock claims for animals killed by dogs.

"If the owner of the dog is known, the county can try to recover the cost of damages caused by the dog," he said. "If the dog is unknown, then the license money is used for its original purpose."

improvements. One of the biggest has been the new MC-18 steerable parachute.

Since Company F's mission is to drop five-man teams behind enemy lines on reconnaissance missions, the steerable chutes are a big plus. "Our teams may have to jump into small clearings, and the steerable chute makes that possible," Johnson said.

Like most of the rigger section, Johnson has spent a long time with his unit (since 1974). "Most of the riggers who join Company F stay until they get 20 years of service," he said. "But even though it can get monotonous, I wouldn't want to do anything else. We've got a good record and we intend to keep it."

Man And Burro

terrible, "last night he was running circles on his rope."

"He's had a major body change," explains Reed. "He probably shrunk 12 inches in girth around his stomach and back. He lost weight." (Reed estimates that he dropped from 700 to 600 pounds.) "Now he has muscle."

The duo plays the trip by ear in other ways. They tried afternoon naps, for example, which "didn't work out. I'm better off to keep him (Harry) rolling. He's a real hard worker—he goes into a trance and just jams."

They set off from the family's ten-acre farm, with the well wishes of Reed's wife Sue, their 16-month-old daughter Alexandria, relatives and friends, at 6 a.m. on Saturday, June 8.

A representative from the American Cancer Society was on hand, too, as one purpose of the walk is to take pledges for the organization. As of Day 13 in Grayling, Reed had accepted $3,000 in pledges.

He wears no watch on this trip. Every day, the pair walks until the sun is "two inches off the horizon. If it's hazy, I ask someone the time."

Each day, they have encountered new challenges. In Indiana, it was ticks. In Michigan it has been deerflies, black flies and "bugs dropping out of the trees like rain."

Also, the grass—a staple for Harry—is thinning out as they proceed north.

Reed is impressed with the lack of litter along Michigan roads, however. "It's a 99% improvement over Indiana," he says. He describes his home state highways as "one steady stream of clutter."

He hopes to have made it to Mackinaw City by Sunday, June 23.

"Then I'll see how it goes. I might walk up to the toll booth and let them tell me we can't cross." (Pedestrians are not allowed on the bridge.)

He will set up camp in a private campground. (Donkeys are not permitted in state campgrounds.) Then he will call Sue to tell her when to come pick them up on Monday.

This isn't Reed's first adventure. He hitchhiked to Key West once and says that "I go off on adventures all the time—hunting snakes (he's a Boy Scout merit badge counselor who specializes in snake study), taking a 30-mile walk on a Sunday morning, winding up at a neighbor's house baling hay. Adventures are a way of life."

He says that they also allow him to become an observer.

"All the people I stayed with—I can remember a little about them."

People wishing to donate in honor of Reed and his adopted burro Harry's "Walk For Someone's Tomorrow," can send their pledges to the American Cancer Society, 1417 North Anthony, Fort Wayne, Indiana, 46805 (219-422-3911).
